

a "FUN · Raiser" to benefit Horse-Angels, Inc. Horse Rescue!

A non-competitive day of horsemanship, fun, food and information – everyone walks away a winner!

When:

- Saturday, June 20, 2009
- Gates open at 8:00am - Events start at 9:00am

Why:

To raise money and awareness of Horse-Angels Horse Rescue, a not-for-profit rescue and rehabilitation facility located in Owen County, Indiana. (www.horse-angels.org)

Where:

Stone Creek Ranch
5401 Duvall Road
Bloomington, IN 47403
(www.stonecreekranchindiana.com)

Ride the trails, demonstrate your horsemanship, and master new skills !
Have fun while benefiting a good cause!

- Test yourself on the obstacle course
- Relax on the 16 miles of trails, ranging from beginner to rugged
 - Practice the perfect side-pass
 - Learn how to move cattle around
- Get your training or behavioral questions answered by clinician Wayne Allbright
 - Consult on your horse's nutritional issues
 - And much, much more!!

Admission Information:

- Riders/Participants - $35 in advance/$45 at the gate
- Spectators - $5
- Admission includes Lunch!

Advance Tickets Available at: Stone Creek Ranch, White River Co-op, Ellettsville Orscheln Farm & Home.

All participants win! All riders will receive a bag of Prince 13% Maintenance feed, formulated exclusively for Stone Creek Ranch, as well as prizes donated by our sponsors!

Lunch will be provided by Randy Dyer, our Texas Chuckwagon cookoff champion!

All participants entered to win an SMX AirRide Pad!

Donate your new or gently used Equine items for a Silent Auction to benefit Horse Angels!

Sponsors: Stone Creek Ranch, Smith's Western Wear & Tack, Prince Feed, The Diamond Office Custom Jewelry, Texas Roadhouse, Square Donuts, Jiffy Treet of Highland Village, White River Co-op & the Ellettsville Orscheln Farm & Home store

Horseback riding is an outdoor activity – This event will be held rain or shine!

All horses entering facility will be required to provide proof of negative Coggins within last twelve months.